Location & surrounding area:

The small village of Estellencs is situated on the steep coast of the Tramuntana mountains, on the coastal road from Andratx to Soller, and is also a stage of the long-distance hiking trail GR-221.

It is a place of tranquillity and tradition, far from mass tourism and therefore ideal for those seeking relaxation and nature. The road there leads through the mountains where spectacular views of the sea and the raw mountain scenery are the reward.

Estellencs is an optimal starting point for countless hikes and bicycle routes. The small bay Cala d'Estellencs offers quietness and crystal-clear water - in summer a welcome and cooling refreshment!

Restaurants, cafes and bars with typical Mallorcan dishes offer magnificent views of the mountains and the sea.

The main economic factor is farming, particularly of tomatoes grown on terraced fields, and wine making.
