Details:

This stylish and modern country house is being developed on a 15,000 sqm plot of land on the outskirts of Cas Concos and enjoys wonderful views of the surrounding countryside and the Tramontana mountain range in the distance. The house will be partly clad in natural stone which is also used in the design of the landscaped garden adding charm and authenticity to the property.

The 300 sqm of living space will leave nothing to be desired and only the best of materials and furnishings will be used. The bright and spacious interior will have a combination of new and old-style elements, such as a white exposed beam and full-length windows with beautiful views of the garden, that will enhance the character of the house. In addition to the living and dining room and fully equipped modern kitchen with high-end appliances, there will also be a total of four bedrooms and four bathrooms.

Outside a large swimming pool surrounded by trees and Mediterranean vegetation provides the ideal place to relax. Open and covered terraces offer the choice of sun and shade and the option to dine al fresco on warm summer days.

The popular village of Santanyi with its twice weekly market and boutiques and numerous restaurants is just a short drive away.
